1. Perused the two affidavits dated 5.12.2006. Both are filed by officers of the Indian agency. The same are taken on record. It appears that the natural mother of the child is not an Indian citizen and she is a Omani national. She has come to India only for the purpose of delivery of child and according to the affidavits she left India immediately after the delivery inspite of Doctor's advise not to leave immediately. It is mentioned in the affidavits that under the laws of Oman if it is found that she is carrying illegitimate child, she will be punished by stoning to death. In such exceptional circumstances, confirmation of deed of surrender is dispensed with only in this case. This will not be a precedent in other cases. CARA certificate indicates that all procedure is followed. Scrutiny officer today filed an additional representation. The same includes updated home study report. Additional documents and additional representations which are taken on record. Hence, Judge's order is separately signed. Petition stands disposed off.
